The readers of Scribner's Magazine may count themselves fortunate in having the promise of the best series Mr. Robert Grant has yet written. The author's "Reflections of a Married Man" were in a manner entirely original, and these articles on "The Art of Living" will touch upon the life of the family, in the same diverting way.

The problem Mr. Grant sets himself to solve, as far as such problems can be solved, is made up of the every day questions which beset the well-to-do family.

THE INCOME: How can it be spent to the best advantage? What are the necessities and what the luxuries? Does the man with $8,000 income get $8,000 worth more for his money than the man with $2,000?

THE DWELLING: Recounts the experience of two families, one moved into a street rising in dignity, and the other where the neighbors dined in their shirt-sleeves. Is it better to rent or to buy and pay interest?

HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES: Providing for the table, keeping accounts, trying to keep house expenses within fixed amount, and similar burning questions.

EDUCATION OF THE CHILDREN: What it means in this day and generation, and the expense of it all.

THE SUMMER PROBLEM: Especially as it affects the head of the family, who must spend his week days and night in town.

MARRIED ON SINGLE LIFE: The joys of one and the compensations of the other.

THE CASE OF MAN: Being his way of looking at these problems of living.

THE CASE OF WOMAN: Being the same problem from her point of view.

Begins in January.

The illustrations, it is believed, will be as good in their way as the text. Mr. C. D. Gibson has drawn the pictures for the first two articles.

The Story of the Metropolis.

Mayor Gilroy having read Dr. Parkhurst's letter of last week, commanding Mrs. Martha J. Lamb's admirable "History of the City of New York," has written to the publishers, Messrs. A. S. Barnes & Co., that he heartily endorses Dr. Parkhurst's opinion of the book, a copy of which he possesses. Dr. Parkhurst says that the History has no rival. No work even approaches it as a text-book of information as to the history of our city. He hopes that all citizens will own a copy of the work, so that they may the more intelligently comprehend what a responsibility rests upon them to treasure and guard its interests. In order that it may reach a wider circulation the publishers have decided to reduce the price to $16.00. The demand has already exhausted the stock on hand, but more copies will be ready early next week. Call and examine the work at No. 56 East 10th st (near Broadway.)

The Lover's Year Book of Poetry.

A collection of Love-Poems for Every Day in the Year. By HORACE PARKER CHANDLER.

FIRST SERIES. Vol. I., January to June. Vol. II., July to December.

MARRIED LIFE AND CHILD-LIFE. Vol. I., January to June. Vol. II., July to December.

Four volumes, each 16mo, cloth, $1.25. White and gold, $1.50.

It would be impossible to specify any particular poems of the collection for special praise. They have been selected with unerring taste and judgment, and include some of the most exquisite poems in the language. Altogether the four volumes make up a treasure-house of Love poetry unequalled for sweetness and purity of expression. They ought to find not only a large holiday sale, but a steady sale through the year. —Transcript.
